

Eagle CP School Newsletter

Term 1 Week 6
Friday 11th October 2019

Dear Parents

Parent Consultations

Please look out for the slips coming home tonight giving you your allocated date and time. They have been given as close to your request as possible and take into account siblings.

When you arrive at school, you will be directed to sign in and wait in your child's classroom where you can look at their work to date while you wait for your appointment. Your child's class teacher will come and find you (allowing for sibling classroom visits too if applicable) when they are ready for you appointment time.

School Harvest Festival

We invite you all to Eagle Church on Friday 18th October at 2pm where we share with our harvest of seasonal learning. A group of children have already been part of harvest celebrations in Church last Friday and wowed the congregation. We will all get to see their performance as well as a little something from each class.

In the spirit of harvest, we will once again be collecting donations for the Lincoln Larder. The Larder is 30 years old and started when a lady became aware that some people were finding it difficult to feed their families in a time of crisis so kept a small stock of tinned goods in her front room. Now the Larder is open in two estates and needs 25 volunteers to run, all of which grown from the commitment of one woman and the generosity of local people. If you can donate any in-date goods from the list attached to this newsletter on our Harvest day, we would be very grateful and will arrange collection.

Sainsbury's Collector Cards

The swap club stock is full of all the cards that no-one needs ☺. Typical! I'm not giving up though and I'm still keeping a check and on the look-out for the final cards to help finish the albums for those children who have got involved. If you have any requirements you can still pop a list in and I am now searching for these spares:

8 x2 / 13 / 51 x5 / 81 / 83 x2 / 90 x2 / 94 / 110 / 122 / 131x2 / 141

FOES Halloween Disco

If you haven't already got your ticket, don't forget it is the Halloween Disco on Friday 1st November, 5.30-7.00 ... dress to impress

It's nearly the end of term...

We have one week until the end of term and lots to fit in. We hope you are looking forward to your first half term of this year and we will be back on Tuesday 29th October.

Kind regards, Hayley Adams
