

Little Eagles Newsletter

How are you feeling?

Little Eagles have been learning lots about how they are feeling. When you are very little, it is very tricky to know how to explain exactly what we are feeling and why that might change the way we behave. So we need to spend lots of time teaching each other how to recognise what faces tell us about our emotions – when we like something and when we want it to stop. I wonder if they are able to talk about this at home too?

Pre-Reception Letters

If your child has turned four or will be turning four during Terms 1 & 2, look out for your child's pre-reception letter next week which will be inviting them to join us during their booked mornings in Class 1. Included with the letter is information which will hopefully answer any questions you may have, otherwise please just pop in and ask.

ISSUE DATE:
Friday 28th September

How Do You Feel Today?

Happy

Sad

Angry

Scared

Silly

Excited

Surprised

Shy

Embarrassed

Autumn ...

Little Eagles will be learning about Autumn and playing with Autumn things in a couple of weeks' time. If you are out and about enjoying the change of the seasons and happen to collect anything like conkers, acorns or amazing leaves and are happy to share, we would love to use them in our play and provision.

Thank you

Thank you