

Little Eagles Newsletter

Thank you

Thank you for everyone who took advantage of the opportunity for a 'chat' this week. As we opened the school doors for parent consultations, we felt that we could offer the same for the parents of Little Eagles as we appreciate that it may not always be appropriate or timely to catch-up at drop-off and home time and that parents may be at work. So we hope that it is useful for some 😊

Nearly half term ...

As well as sharing and exploring books, it has been all things Autumn in Little Eagles and the half term will be the perfect chance to continue both and explore the world around and see the seasonal changes happening. If your child says or does something interesting, challenging, exciting or that makes you feel proud about the new things they can do, you can add this to their Tapestry journal

ISSUE DATE:
Friday 19th October 2018

I will learn to read
but first I need to...

- Rhyme
I need to recognise the sounds that letters make before I can read.
- Look at books
I need to be interested in words and books to read.
- Track
I need to follow objects with my eyes to read.
- Talk
I need an extensive vocabulary to understand what I read.
- Do puzzles
I need to differentiate size, shapes, lines and directions to read.
- Build
I need to use my fingers and hands independently to hold books and turn pages.

... and I need someone to read to me every day!

Shoebox Appeal

Are you amazed by the endless stream of adverts for toys and games, feeling the list to Santa ever-increasing? One thing that helps us all to appreciate the things we have is the Shoebox Appeal in liaison with Samaritan's Purse. The idea is to fill a shoebox with goodies and talk about the purpose of sharing with those that have nothing through no fault of their own. If you may like to get involved, it is something nice to do with your child during half term in time for a collection on Friday 23rd November.
