

Little Eagles Newsletter

Happy Bank Holiday

As you receive this week's newsletter, you will hopefully be looking forward to an enjoyable bank holiday weekend. As the weather is set to improve a little, we hope that everyone has a great time and we will see you back on Tuesday 8th May.

Mud Glorious Mud!

We really hope to have some sunny days soon as we have been filling up the mud pit. We hope to get stuck in and enjoy all the play that mud can bring – feeling it, mixing it, digging it!

We hope they won't get too messy, at least children are 100% washable! Please make sure though their clothes are not too precious as getting stuck into our outdoor environment is so important, for fresh air and fun (sometimes...muddy fun ☺).

SORRY about the MESS
but we are LEARNING here.

Playing is learning

I hope you are enjoying seeing the Little Eagles Story on Class Dojo. If you are not connected, just let us know. This picture shows so much. A little question while playing has encouraged these super chaps to share, collaborate, talk, take turns, learn and use language to sort the dinosaurs. The dinosaurs have played in all sorts and been great fun ... I wonder what next week will bring??? Exciting to wonder ☺

ISSUE DATE:
Friday 4th May